

DISARMAMENT MEANS APPLY TO AIR AND OCEAN

SECRETARY DANIELS CALLS ATTENTION TO BRITISH PROGRAM PLANNED

LIMITING WARSHIPS WON'T HELP IF THERE IS AIR COMPE-TION, SAID HE

BY RALPH H. TURNER.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 21—Any agreement for world disarmament must include air forces and all other branches of warfare, Secretary Daniels declared today in commenting on suggestions that Great Britain was ready to limit battleship construction because of concentration on air development.

"The United States should not be inferior in any branch of warfare," Daniels said.

"It would be inconsistent for the nations to agree on reduction of capital forces and be allowed to expand along other lines. Competition in air craft building," he said, "would be as dangerous as any kind of naval competition. I assume disarmament would include air craft."

Daniels said he realizes Britain was better prepared for air fighting than the United States and that this country has no air craft carriers and none yet authorized.

Disarmament Congress

Washington, Jan. 21—Should President-elect Harding issue a call to a disarmament conference when he takes office the people of the great powers would force their governments to respond, Henry White, one of the American peace delegates, told the house naval affairs committee today.

Such an invitation by President Wilson would produce no results, White added, because Wilson is an outgoing president.

History of Disarmament

Discussion of world disarmament has been increasing ever since the election last fall. Some of these developments are:

The senate foreign relations committee has reported the Borah resolution for a disarmament conference between the United States, Great Britain and Japan.

The house foreign affairs committee has reported the Brooks resolution for a world disarmament conference.

Naval disarmament plans have been laid before President-elect Harding and he has indicated he may favor them.

The house naval affairs committee has obtained the view of Secretary Daniels, General Bliss and others and will today hear Henry White, peace delegate and tomorrow General John Pershing.

Coincident with departure for London of British Ambassador Geddes reports have reached here that England was ready to forego further naval construction. But British naval officials pointed out Britain is concentrating on air construction.

Burdick told the Tri-State Grain Growers association that 437,000,000 pounds of Australian wool has been brought into this country this year and that a protective tariff is imperative.

MOBS THREATEN THE VIENNA PROFITEERS

REPLICAS OF GALLOWNS SHOWN ON WAGONS AS PROFIT-EERS' REWARD

ASSAULTS ON STORES AND PRO-VISION HOUSES MAY FOLLOW PARADES

(By United Press)

Vienna, Jan. 21—Mobs such as formed during the revolution in the streets of Paris gathered here today sending hundreds of frightened profiteers to the country. Shouting threats and singing martial airs the mob followed wagons on which had been erected replicas of gallows.

Police officers augmented by recruits from the former Austrian army made no attempts to interfere with the marchers.

Meanwhile labor organizations have served an ultimatum on the government giving them three days in which to reduce the prices of necessities. The crowd which marched through the famous but dilapidated streets today feared the labor threats may be followed by action. It was believed possible assault would be made on stores and provision houses where goods would be confiscated.

The flight of the profiteers left many stores closed. Windows and doors were barred lending still further an air of desolation to what formerly was one of the gayest cities in the world. Authorities believe they would be able to suppress any outbreak if police remain loyal.

TROTSKY REPORTED ENGAGED TO DANCER

Sinn Feiners

(By United Press)

Dublin, Jan. 21—Two uniformed men were under arrest here today charged with assassinating Thomas Lawless in his bed last night.

The assassination was another instance of the growing violence in the regions of Dublin. Sinn Feiners avenged themselves against Tobias Sullivan, police inspector who stood off an attack by three hundred men last May.

Sullivan was killed as he stepped from the door of Listowel barracks yesterday.

THEY WON'T EVEN LEAVE MAN ALONE WHEN ON VACATION

PRESIDENT-ELECT HARDING TODAY IS SPEEDING ACROSS KENTUCKY AND TENNESSEE

IN ST. AUGUSTINE HOUSEBOAT HARDING MAY DETERMINE WHO'S WHO IN CABINET

RAYMOND CLAPPER

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
With President-elect Harding, enroute to St. Augustine, Florida, Jan. 21—A trip to the Pacific coast probably will be made by President-elect Harding during his administration, it was learned today.

The time of this trip is entirely uncertain, but it is expected to take place when official duties make it possible for Harding to leave Washington for a short time.

Harding was speeding across Kentucky and Tennessee today on his way to St. Augustine, Florida, where he begins a six weeks vacation tomorrow.

The first two weeks will be spent on Senator Frelinghuysen's houseboat. He will stop at St. Augustine most of the time thereafter. Harding left Marion shortly after midnight and passed through Cincinnati early today, traveling in the private car, "Superb," which carried him on several of his campaign trips.

Harry M. Daugherty accompanied Harding. Even in the seclusion of his car Harding is unable to drop entirely the problem connected with his proposed cabinet. When that is solved there still remains the inaugural address and the message to the special session of congress, which must be written and these of all important documents will involve factional differences which is making selection of the cabinet so hard. Mrs. Harding will remain in Marion to finish moving the furniture out of the house. The house is to be rented to a Marion acquaintance.

ARMISTICE DAY LEGAL HOLIDAY

(United Press)

St. Paul, Jan. 21—The state senate today passed the bill making armistice day, November 11, a legal holiday. The measure now goes to the house. Senator Henry Benson of St. Peter introduced the bill at the instigation of the American Legion.

The senate also passed a bill authorizing incorporation of American Legion posts under a law governing organizations of fraternal societies.

Unlimited credit for Minnesota to aid corporations or individuals in agricultural development was proposed in a bill offered by Senators Garrud, Hopp, Hall and McGarry. The measure provides for a constitutional amendment to be submitted at the next state election.

Senator Boylan of Virginia introduced a measure providing that state employees shall receive their pay twice a month instead of monthly as now. Senator Iver J. Lee, nonpartisan, asked adoption of a measure removing restriction on number of pickers allowed to be caught in one day. The limit is now twenty-five per day. The measure would also top one month off the closed season on pickers.

The public welfare committee of the house today discussed a resolution urging congress to suspend immigration for one year.

Mule Breaks Leg Twice Kicking Man in Head

Huntsville, Ala., Jan. 21—The claim of Joseph Jones, of Merrimac, to hospital attaches here that he had "some bean," was borne out today when his story that he had been kicked by a mule on the head and that as a result the animal was lying helpless with a broken leg was investigated and found to be true. Jones said his way was blocked by a stray mule and he made a threatening gesture, to frighten it away. It refused to stampede, however, meeting the assault with a well directed kick to the brow. The mule's leg was broken in two places. It was pronounced a helpless cripple and shot. Jones will recover.

TO RECUPERATE IN ITALY TO SAVE HIS GOLDEN VOICE

5 ASSOCIATED PHYSICIANS IN A CONFERENCE OVER CARUSO, NOTED TENOR

BELIEVE THE VOICE THAT HAS THRILLED MILLIONS MAY BE REGAINED SOON

HAROLD JACOBS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
New York, Jan. 21—Enrico Caruso, slowly convalescing after a critical illness with pleurisy, will leave for Italy within a few weeks in an effort to regain his strength and win back the "golden voice."

With the great tenor definitely out of danger as regards his life the efforts of specialists are now being concentrated on preserving his voice power which has thrilled millions of persons throughout the world.

Enrico Caruso's last experience in Italy was far from pleasant. On this trip peasants invaded his villa near Florence during the political upheaval and seized all special foods and wine for their uses. Prominent physicians have pointed out that not only is the climate exactly suited to his case but that the effect of being in his national land would be highly beneficial. Caruso is now permitted to sit up for a short period every day and the five associated physicians are called into consultation only once a week. He has received a few visitors within the last few days for the first time since he was taken ill, on Christmas day. He still refuses to see newspaper men however pleading that he didn't know what to talk about.

GOVERNOR TO ACT ON BONUS PAYMENT

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Jan. 21—The method of complete payment of soldier bonus in Minnesota today hung on the decision of Governor J. A. O. Pless, legislators believed.

Advocates of direct appropriations to provide the $7,500,000 necessary were confident the governor would recommend to the senate finance committee late today that the fund be provided by appropriations from the financial fund.

State Treasurer Henry Rines is opposed to this plan and declared it would result in a deficit. He proposed further sale of certificates of indebtedness to provide money. He declared a direct appropriation would increase taxation levies next year by four mills.

Women jurors may try Iowa promoter

Sioux City, Jan. 21—George P. Johnson, promoter and alleged wrecker of the defunct Alfalfa and Cereal Milling company, was placed on trial in district court here. He is charged with the embezzlement of $50,000 of the company's funds. The company, still in the promotion stage, was thrown into the receivers' hands last April. Since then, until recently, Johnson has been out on bonds. A few weeks ago his bondsmen caused his arrest in Chicago. It is probable women will be chosen on the jury to hear the case.

River improvement urged by shippers

Washington, Jan. 21—Improvement of the Mississippi, Ohio and Missouri rivers to insure year round navigation between Minneapolis and St. Paul and St. Louis and Pittsburgh and Kansas City was urged before the house rivers and harbors committee by a delegation of shippers and barge line operators from the middlewest. The improvements, it is estimated, would cost $60,000,000.

Arbitrage.

This is a term applied to transactions taking advantage of difference in price in different markets for the same articles. At the same time that the trader buys in the cheaper market he sells in the dearer. The margin between the two prices must be more than the cost of exchange in coin, bills and exchanges or stocks and bonds.

While the men were eating and while a score were standing outside waiting their turn sixty police arrived and told the crowd to disperse. Those outside scattered. Those inside grabbed what food was in sight and ran.

GREED WORSE THAN POVERTY

Former Always Fruitful of Evil, While the Latter is Often Incentive to Thrift.

The fear of poverty is not in itself a bad thing, writes Dr. Charles Aubrey Eaton in Leslie's. It may become the mother of thrift. It acts as a spur to endeavor, and some men, like some horses, do their best under the spur.

Poverty is not always an unmitigated evil. In fact, it is and has been looked upon as one of the distinctly Christian virtues, although there seems to be rather a feeble desire to practice this particular grace.

Greedy, on the other hand, is always bad. It is plainly the outcropping of the bog in human nature. It is the fear of poverty run amuck. It is illustrated by the drunkard who often had too much but never got enough. Greedy is at the bottom of most of our troubles today and has been equally fruitful of evil in every age and among every class. We can never come to permanent social peace while the fear of poverty embitters one-half the people and greed drives the other half to self-destruction. Nor will it get us anywhere to infect the whole population with the greedy germ and turn society into a glorified trough.

Japanese Marriage Customs.

Marriages in Japan are generally brought about by older married couples who act as go-betweens. There is a popular saying that everyone should act as a go-between at least three times. The go-between, knowing a young man and woman whom he regards as suitable to each other, proposes the match confidentially to the parents of both. If preliminary reports are mutually satisfactory to the two families, a meeting of the young couple and their parents and relatives is arranged on neutral ground. Any intimation of the real purpose of this meeting is tactfully avoided at the time, though the purpose of it is, of course, fully understood by all concerned. Under this arrangement either family may, without giving offense, drop the matter after the first meeting, but if the results of the preliminary inspection are satisfactory to both sides, the parents meet again and definitely arrange the match, which is made binding by an exchange of presents.

NATURE PROVIDES THE INGREDIENTS

Argo-Phosphate, the New Herbal Remedy, Now Endorsed by Local People

If the digestive organs are not properly performing the work which nature has assigned to them, then nutrition, which is absolutely essential to the recovery of other diseased parts, will be lacking and there can be no permanent relief. When bodily nutrition is normal, the stomach digests the food, the blood absorbs and carries the nourishment to the different parts of the body, causing the various organs to properly perform their functions.

Nature has provided a remedy in the ingredients of Argo-Phosphate, the new herbal stomach remedy, which is now being introduced here. It is purely vegetable and its vitalizing, corrective and reconstructive results are noticed from the first day. That this is true, it is only necessary to listen to the statements made daily by local people who have given Argo-Phosphate a fair trial and have been benefited thereby. It is dispensed by H. P. Dunn.

IN TRADES AND LABOR HALL

Entertainment Committee Included Chairman Clifford Russell, C. W. Miller and Ed Backen

Brainerd Lodge No. 1246, Loyal Order of Moose, had a dance and supper following their regular meeting in the Labor Temple on Thursday evening.

Deputy Grand Organizer Mrs. H. R. Weidemann, organizing the Mooseheart Legion, the ladies auxiliary of the Moose, outlined the work of the Legion and secured many members for the institution of the same in Brainerd.

About 8:30 o'clock the Moose session was finished and then the Moose and their friends started the social session which lasted until 1 o'clock in the morning. There was a large attendance and every one enjoyed the program of the evening.

The entertainment committee having charge of dance and supper included Chairman Clifford Russell and his associates C. W. Miller and Ed Backen.

LOWELL PARENT-TEACHERS

Miss Head Gave a Demonstration Lesson With Her Pupils at Association Meeting

A most interesting meeting was held Monday evening when the Lowell Parent-Teachers Association held their monthly meeting.

Miss Head gave a demonstration lesson with a group of her pupils. This was very much appreciated as many of those present have not had the opportunity of seeing their work and its wonderful results.

This was followed by a question box meeting over which Prof. W. C. Cobb presided.

Both parents and teachers were given the opportunity to ask questions and many interesting problems which have confronted both parents and teachers were brought up and discussed.

It was decided that the next meeting would take the form of an entertainment given by the school children sometime during the latter part of February.

HAD REHEARSAL OF FUNERAL

Curious Notion Held by Spanish Monarch Concerning Ceremony in Which He Would Figure.

Charles V, king of Spain and emperor of Germany in the Sixteenth century, was a pious ruler. Toward the end of his life he conceived the curious idea of rehearsing his own funeral, not because he wished to have the event go off without a hitch when the time should come, but because he thought the performance of the ceremony would redound to the credit and well-being of his soul in the after-world. His friends sought to dissuade him, but, deeming it a holy act, the ruler went ahead with his preparations. A catafalque was erected and the service performed. The high altar, the catafalque, and the entire church shone with wax lights; the friars were all in their proper places and the household of the emperor attended in deep mourning. "The pious monarch himself was there, attired in sable weeds," according to the monkish historian, "and bearing a taper, to see himself interred and to celebrate his own obsequies." While the mass for the dead was sung, he came forward and gave his taper to the officiating priest as a symbol of his desire to yield up his soul. Not only once, but for many years, until he finally died in 1558, Charles V performed this strange ceremony annually.

Term "Four Hundred."

This term was originally applied by a well known society man of New York, Ward McAllister, to the wealthiest residents of that city. For a ball given by a millionaire in New York city, McAllister was in charge of the invitation list. When questioned by a reporter, he stated that only 400 cards were to be sent out, adding "After all, there are only 400 persons in New York who count in a social way." The reporter was able afterward to obtain the list of guests and had their names printed as New York's Four Hundred.

MOTION PICTURE PLANT INSTALLED

New Departure at the First Methodist Church Is Announced by Church

PRESENT TRUTH OF THE GOSPEL

On Each Friday Evening—No Admission Charged, Offering Will Be Taken

An entirely new departure in the preaching of the gospel is being taken up by the Methodist Episcopal church. A motion picture plant of the best obtainable is being installed this week and the first picture shown to the general public will be shown Sunday night at the time of the regular service.

The church is following the plan of some other church and the plan endorsed by the general conference of the church. The possibilities of the motion picture is recognized and will be used for the presenting of the truths of the gospel. Then on each Friday evening a program will be presented of entertaining films. The purpose of this will be to educate the desire for clean films. "The church," said an official of the church, "has no quarrel with motion pictures but it has a decided quarrel with the film which has low moral suggestions and our purpose is not to run in opposition to the commercial picture business but to create a desire for better films which the commercial movie men have expressed a ready willingness to furnish constantly if the public will patronize them." Continuing he said "we recognize that many films shown are clean, entertaining and positively good but movie men themselves regret that the demand is not such that only such films are produced. It is the entertainment of our people that we expect to accomplish with our new plant."

The picture to be shown Sunday night, "The Stream of Life," is accepted by churchmen as the best religious film ever produced. It is a six reel film. It will also be run on Monday night to accommodate those of other churches who may wish to see it.

No admission will be charged for any of the films; the church expects to rely upon offerings taken at each exhibition to finance the project.

As this is a new venture in the church life of Brainerd the results will be watched with interest.

New Illuminator.

Prof. Alexander Silverman has invented a new illuminator for the microscope, whose special advantage is that it gives a very strong light upon the object examined, so that opaque and translucent bodies can be as readily studied as transparent ones. The top of the object on the slide can be seen with all the variations of its surface. It is particularly valuable in testing samples of metals since it shows the presence of blow holes and pits and much detail not hitherto visible. It is likewise useful to textile experts since it shows the threads of a fabric from every angle and is also much appreciated by bacteriologists.

What Edison did during the War

THE official announcement is out. Ask us for your copy of "What Edison Did During the War." Write for it, if you can't call.

It tells how Edison left his home and business and went to sea, how Edison's "Yankee magic" foiled the German submarines.

The bulletin tells many other things Edison did while Chairman of the Naval Consulting Board. It explains how Edison kept the price of his phonograph at bed rock during an era of high costs and soaring prices. Since 1914 the New Edison has advanced in price less than 15%—and part of this is war tax.

This bulletin also describes the Budget Plan, which makes it possible for every home to enjoy the benefits of good music without feeling the financial outlay.

WOODROW NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Norgard were callers at the home of A. H. Aspholm Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shufflin are spending their honeymoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Patrick.

J. J. Christensen has been on the sick list for some time. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

Sawing wood is no easy task, especially when there is engine trouble. If in doubt inquire of Frank Ziganski.

Frank Patrick met with a slight misfortune while hauling logs. Mr. Patrick is more skilled in driving a "Lexington" than a team.

Clarence Tollefson and Albert Banta were callers at the Hanson home Monday.

"Hard Time Dance" at Woodrow Saturday night, Jan. 22nd. Good music from Brainerd. Everyone come dressed in old clothes or be subject to a fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strand are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Announcements were received from Phoenix, Ariz. of the arrival of a twelve pound boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Canan. Mrs. Canan formerly was Miss Mabel DuLum.

There are still some attractions at Woodrow. One famous young gentleman of renown after having spent Sunday afternoon and most all evening there finally composed himself enough to start home. The next morning when he spied his tracks in the snow he willingly admitted that he had taken more steps than had been necessary. Who was he? Can any one tell?

Falconry Still Practiced.

Falconry, known to the Chinese 2,000 B. C., and popular sport in days of Nineveh and Babylon, 1200 B. C., is still in vogue in certain parts of England. Wild hawks are caught and tamed for the sport, and the Illustrated London News recently related how one old Hollander with two assistants, captured a sufficient number of the sporting birds to keep English clubs supplied. The hawks are trapped with decoy pigeons and nets. The hawks bear a distinct resemblance to smaller ones of the American family.

COMING BEMIDJI GAME

Brainerd and Bemidji High Basketball Teams to Battle Here for Stellar Honors Tonight

(Contributed by D. H.)
The Brainerd high school basketball team, with another victory under its belts, has one of the toughest games of the season on its hands tonight at the local high school auditorium when the team runs into the undefeated Bemidji basketball team.

Bemidji has already defeated some of the fastest teams of the district on her own floor by large scores. Last Friday the Crosby-Ironton team which was considered one of the best runner-ups for the district championship met defeat at the hands of the up-river team by a 43 to 14 score. So it is easily seen that the local boys will have a tough battle on their hands.

Cosch Opdahl has not yet given out the lineup that will start the game. From all indications the fans can expect to see Capt. Welsh and either Hill or Erickson at forward, Lagerquist at center and Sheffo and Thoe at guards.

Good interest will be attributed to the Brainerd-Bemidji mix because a former Brainerd boy namely Walter Higbe, who was a star on the local team two years ago will be seen at forward position on the Bemidji team playing against his old team-mates.

Brainerd is one of the leading teams in this district having lost no games as yet. A defeat on Friday night will not eliminate the local team in its run for the district championship. But remember we haven't lost yet.

A word to the fans! Please, remember your basketball etiquette tonight. That is to keep quiet while a Bemidji player is trying to make a free throw or in plainer words when he is trying to shoot a foul. Many are probably ignorant of the rule but any hissing at this time will compel the referee to call a foul on the crowd. One point in this game will mean a lot and we don't want to lose this game.

The high school orchestra will furnish the music for the evening and the "Actors and Actresses Committee" has something good lined up in the way of entertainment for the benefit of the fans. It is hoped that the Machinists drum corp can be secured so as to play for the "Grand March."

C. F. Schropp, director of athletics in the St. Cloud school and known over the whole state as one of the best referees will have charge of the game.

Remember the game starts at 8 o'clock sharp. The tickets are 35 cents and can be secured from any high school student or at the door. Come one—come all. Step out and see on the the greatest thrills of your life. Brainerd vs. Bemidji.

ALICE JOYCE

Star in the "Winchester Woman", at The New Lyceum Tonight Only
—An Unusual Role

Alice Joyce has an unusual role in Vitagraph's "The Winchester Woman", which is shown at the Lyceum theatre tonight. The role is unusual in that it brings to light the type of heroine who wins no medals and often dies alone, unknown. She portrays the heroine of everyday life, the woman who sacrifices self for the benefit of mankind with no hope of reward and no thought of personal gain. Tonight will also mark the starting of the new serial picture, "The Phantom Fox".

J. Warren Kerrigan

While filming the unusual desert scenes that are a feature of J. Warren Kerrigan's latest Brunton production, "The Coast of Opportunity," showing at the Lyceum Saturday, the entire company was lost forty-eight hours in a sandstorm.

In this picture Kerrigan plays the role of a young mining engineer who roams the waste places of the earth in search of rich fields of ore. Deep in a desert region of Old Mexico he discovers a heavy vein of copper and makes his fortune.

MOTHER LOVE IS KEYNOTE

Lullabys and Baby Songs Keep Miss Frederick Through Trying Emotional Role

Pauline Frederick, whose new picture "Madame X", comes to the New Park theatre, for two days, commencing today enacted most of her intense, emotional scenes in the famous drama to the accompaniment of soft lullabys played by the orchestra. Mother love is one of the strongest emotions developed in the drama, in fact it is a mother's love and longing for the son she has not seen since he was a baby that develops the action of the play to a point where the mysterious "Madame X" finds him in the young lawyer who is defending her in her trial for murder.

Miss Frederick, one of the greatest emotional actresses in pictures, uses music extensively in all her plays, making her own selections and basing her choice on the predominant note of the drama. Mother love is the one redeeming feature of the character of "Madame X" which Miss Frederick is portraying and therefore she likes to have baby songs, particularly "Hush a by baby," which is played frequently in her big scenes when her impulses as "Madame X" are controlled by the thoughts of the son she has not seen for so many years.

Primitive Pins.

The earliest kind of pins, or of spikes serving the same purpose as pins, were probably thorns or the small bones of fish and other animals. Among the remains found on the sites of prehistoric lake-dwellings of Europe there are a number of bone pins, some of rude and others of an elegant form. The great majority of the pins in these "finds" are, however, of bronze; but a few of copper and one of iron have also been discovered.

MRS. SARAH DORAN CALLED TO REWARD

Came to Brainerd With Her Husband
April 1880. Lived Since 1882
at 420 South 9th St.

FOUR CHILDREN BORN TO THEM

Funeral Arrangements to be Announced When Sons in Washington and Minneapolis Reached

Mrs. Sarah Doran, wife of Daniel Doran of 420 South Ninth street died at 10 a. m. today, Friday, January 21st.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made because it was necessary to communicate with a son Robert E. in Tacoma, Washington.

Mrs. and Mr. Doran were married in Big Rapids, Michigan, on July 20, 1873 and they came to Brainerd on the third day of April in the year 1880.

Mr. Doran was sent out to run the section at Crow Wing. One day while he was at work, three Indians came to the house and drove Mrs.
Doran out. Mrs. Doran called upon people named McArthur who could talk Chippewa and they talked to the Indians who refused to leave. When the trains came along the conductors and passengers drove the Indians into the woods.

Mrs. Doran had another thrilling experience with Indians near Deer-wood and the story of those days as told by Mr. Doran, would make interesting reading for the people of Brainerd.

Mrs. Doran was born in County Down, Ireland and knew Mr. Doran over there, he being born in the same county.

Four children were born to the union; one boy who died at the age of 2 years; one daughter who came to her end in a tragic manner, being burned to death; and two sons, Robert E. of Tacoma, Washington and John of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Doran had lived in the home on South Ninth street since the fall of 1882.

MAY NOT BE ROBINS

J. A. Wilson Says Arctic Bird, Pine Grossbeak, Resembles the Robin

To the Editor:
I have read several items in the Dispatch stating that several persons reported having recently seen robins in the city.

I have been thinking that perhaps the observers had seen the bird known as the Pine Grossbeak, an Arctic bird with the same color scheme as the robin, which visits this latitude in January. This bird is slightly smaller than the robin but the close observer will notice that its movements are not those of the robin.

The Evening Grossbeak, another Arctic bird, with black, yellow and white plumage is also a winter visitor to this latitude from the Arctic regions.

The bird seen flying over Gull lake, fall in front, was in all probability a Great Blue Heron, commonly called a Crane.

His big feet with his long legs trailing behind certainly looks more like his head than does his real head extending a much shorter distance in front than his feet and legs trail behind.

terian Men's Council Here

On Sunday afternoon a number of the men of the Presbyterian church met to hear an address by R. W. Mc-Leod, a prominent Minneapolis businessman and a member of the Minneapolis Presbyterian Men's Council.

Mr. McLeod dealt with the opportunities before the men of the present day and emphasized the necessity of getting the information, catching the inspiration and developing the inclination to do big things.

At the close of his address W. H.
Wagner was appointed temporary chairman until the organization is completed.

A committee on social affairs was appointed, consisting of O. F. Erickson, H. W. Lagerquist and W. F.
Dieckhaus, and instructed to make the necessary arrangements for a supper at the next meeting, time and place to be arranged by the committee.

Chiropractic for Tonsilitis

If you are suffering from an attack of tonsilitis, the best thing for you to do is to call upon your Chiropractor and have him adjust the cause. It is much better to keep these much abused little organs healthy than to deprive your body of something that an All Wise Creator knew was essential to your needs.
The Chiropractor cannot make Healing Force, but he can adjust subluxated Vertebrae and let it in these diseased tonsils.

SOME PERSONS Have Money Coming to Them

BUT WHO ARE THEY?
AND WHERE?
HAVE THEY
ANY HEIRS?

Perhaps this publicity may help the New York Life to find the beneficiaries of four of our old policy-holders of whom our Policy Claims Department has been unable to find any trace after years of effort.
It appears that in the early days the information on applications was not as definite, accurate and complete as that upon which the Company now insists.

The first case is Policy Number 28,110, issued October 13th, 1864, on the life of William B.
Walters, then 43 years old and a coal dealer in Brooklyn, N. Y., no street address. The application was signed jointly by Walters and his wife, Ellen Walters. His "place and date of birth" appear merely as "Long Island, October 20, 1821." Ever since October 13th, 1917, when the insured would have reached the age of 96, the actuarial limit of life, when policies are settled as death claims even should the insured be living, the New York Life has endeavored to obtain the name and address of the person or persons interested, in order to settle the policy for $4,109, the amount involved.

The second case is that of Isaac E. McFeely, a patternmaker in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Policy
No. 69,182, issued November 21, 1862. Date of birth November 13th, 1824, somewhere in Pennsylvania, place not stated. His wife was Sarah McFeely. There were only three premiums paid and the proper heirs will receive the surrender value of the policy, $300.

Jacob P. Krieger, a barber of Brooklyn, N. Y., born in Germany, October 5, 1824, was insured under Policy No. 117,375. Policy issued January 30, 1865, and signed by him and his wife, Mary Ann Krieger. The proper beneficiaries will receive the face of the policy.

Michael Frenz, a tailor, St. Louis, Mo., insured July 15th, 1876, then 48 years old, Policy No.
121,129, was born in Germany, April 19, 1824. His wife was Mary Frenz.

Anyone having information as to the names and whereabouts of any of the above or their heirs, should inform the local agent—

A STILLER GUEST

By FLORENCE MELLISH.

(© 1921, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

It was a rainbow wedding—a pink maid-of-honor and blue and canary and lavender and pale green bridesmaids. Evelyn looked so sweet and childlike in her white gown and veil that I just curled into my corner of the pew and cried. I had loved her from her babyhood. I had made her first short frocks and rompers and her graduation gown, but my fingers had grown too stiff to be trusted with wedding garments.

Maurice Penfield, looking more dignified and self-possessed than ever, was none the less handsome for his graying temples.

"Isn't he fine looking?" Luella Bates whispered, "and so talented, and rich, too! But aren't you sorry he's a widower—a warmed-over man?"

"No," I whispered back, "he has been tested, and he has borne the test. He was all devotion to his invalid wife."

Luella was silenced, but down in my heart I was a little sorry. I wanted our Evelyn's marriage to be ideal in every way.

But, after all, it was not the lovely bride or the stately bridegroom who held the eyes of the little company that filled the pews. It was the lady who sat stiffly upright in the fourth pew of the west wing. They were whispering to each other:

"Who is the lady in gray?"

Doctor Landphar began the service in his quiet, penetrating tones. When he came to the words: "If any one knows any reason why these two should not be joined in marriage, let him speak now, or forever hold his peace," and I held my breath for an instant as I always did. I always had a nervous feeling: "What if some one should come forward and speak?" I had been a guest at 24 weddings, and no one had come forward.

This time some one did. It was the lady in gray.

"I know a reason," she said in a deep voice that could be heard in every corner of the church.

Doctor Landphar looked surprised, but he kept his usual dignified poise.

"Will you state your reason?" he asked quietly.

"My sister Muriel is Maurice Penfield's wife, and my sister Muriel is here."

The pink maid of honor flushed with anger. The lavender bridesmaid was in tears. The canary bridesmaid lifted her chin haughtily. The blue and pale green bridesmaids clung together tremblingly. Evelyn herself was deathly pale. Maurice Penfield threw a strong arm about her.

"It is my sister-in-law. The poor woman is insane." He turned to one of the ushers. "Can you take her out quietly?"

Evelyn turned instantly and looked behind her. I could see how violently she was trembling. Maurice drew her gently back.

"Try to be calm, Evelyn. The poor mad woman is not worth minding."

"But Muriel is there. I saw her myself," she shivered.

"Evelyn," he said, sternly, this time, "you must be calm." Then speaking to Doctor Landphar: "I think we may go on now."

Months after the dear girl came to me in that same little shabby room and told me the whole story.

"I am happy now, Miss Buffum," she said. "But I was very unhappy at first. Maurice was very patient and tender with me, but I could not make him understand. He would not believe that Muriel did come. He thought it was simply a case of nerves."

"But, Evelyn, I saw no one."

"But she was there. She came again. She came three times. I used to feel so guilty and frightened. You see, it was the locket."

"The locket, Evelyn?"

"Yes, the dearest, loveliest, quaintest silver locket you ever saw. It contained a lock of Muriel's hair. He had given it to Muriel, and she always wore it night and day underneath her gowns. Before she died she gave it back to Maurice and charged him never to let anyone else wear it. He showed it to me once, and I was childishly jealous. I wanted to wear it, and I worried Maurice until he gave it to me. I had it on under my wedding gown in church when Muriel came."

"But, Evelyn—"

"She did come. She came again three times and stood beside my bed. It was in the early morning when it was just beginning to be light. Maurice was always asleep and he would not believe it. But I saw her plain—her eyes were so sad and reproachful. The third time she stood with her eyes fixed on the chain that held the locket. It came to me what she wanted and I unclasped it and gave it to her. She smiled then and she didn't go out by the door. She just seemed to fade away and was gone. She never came again. I have lost my foolish jealousy of poor, sweet, gentle Muriel, and I am happy now."

"Did you tell Maurice about it?"

"Yes, I knew he felt some compunction over giving me the locket, and I wanted him to know that Muriel had it back. But he never could believe me. He said I must have dropped it into the fur rug and one of the chambermaids had found it."

"But, Evelyn, are you quite sure you didn't drop it into the rug?"

"Yes, I am sure. I gave it into Muriel's hands and she looked happy and satisfied. Now I am at peace."

MONOPOLY LOST BY GERMANY

American Chemists Are Now Producing the Rare Sugars Required for Scientific Purposes.

Not least among the triumphs of the new American chemical industry has been the production of the rare sugars, so long a German monopoly. The sugars were called for by the small hospitals, as they are required in small amount in bacteriological laboratories—one of them, for instance, being the most sensitive stimulant of typhoid growth, while others serve in the detection of cholera germ. The infinite care necessary to prepare them in a state of absolute purity makes their cost seemingly enormous. The most expensive rare sugar catalogued is stated by Drug and Chemical Markets to be dulcitol, at $375 a pound, while mannose is worth $140 a pound. This is a delicate and delicious sweet derived from manna, which is secreted in thin scales from certain trees and shrubs, and with which the children of Israel were miraculously fed during their wanderings in the wilderness. Xylose, quoted at $20 a pound, is made from the corn cob; inulin is obtained from the bulb of the dahlia at certain seasons of the year. Other rare sugars are—arabinose, at $100 a pound; levulose, $80 a pound, and raffinose, $75 a pound.

Better Weather Forecasts. Weather forecasts for months ahead will be possible within a few years as a direct result of our observations.

R. M. Stewart, assistant director of the Dominion observatory, told the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada. The sun is the great influence over varying weather conditions on the earth, and recent observations of it have led to the belief that observations will be able to predict with accuracy the general trend of weather for six months or even a year ahead, he said.

To be able to foretell the amount of precipitation and the general temperature for several months in advance may take 50 or even 100 years of observation, he added, but expressed the confidence of the observatory that this end would be reached.

German "Thoroughness."

Max Walter, head of a boys' training school in Frankfurt, tells the following story by way of illustrating German thoroughness:

A venerable teacher in one of Germany's preparatory schools was distractedly ambling about his study one day when he noticed a stray piece of paper. Picking it up he saw that it was a Latin composition from one of his devoted disciples.

On looking at it more closely he detected an error which he had overlooked. Seating himself at his desk, he dipped his pen in good red ink and made the necessary correction. He then folded the paper into a neat roll, stuck it in the fire, and with it lighted his pipe.

MUST USE FOUR LANGUAGES

Advertisers in Turkey Necessarily Under a Handicap That Amounts to a Good Deal.

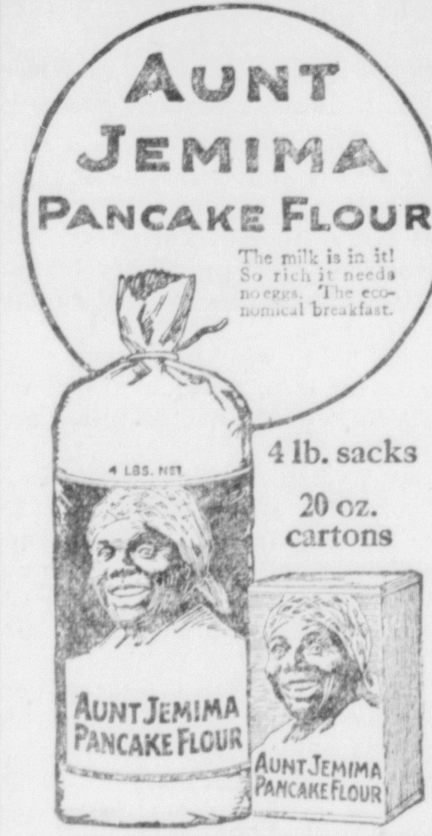

In order to advertise in Constantinople it is necessary to use four languages. The market is hard to cultivate, but newspapers give good results there. The population of Constantinople is very cosmopolitan, and all the foreigners speak their own language and read their own newspapers, writes Trade Commissioner Eliot G. Meers. To reach the public in general, advertisements should be published in newspapers of at least four languages.

However, the best results are obtained by publication in Turkish newspapers, for, on the one hand, the Turkish population is most numerous, and on the other the Turkish reader is more susceptible to the claims of advertisements than are Europeans and Armenians. It has been found by experience that advertising in newspapers gives very good results in Constantinople, especially if it is pushed vigorously.

No advertising is carried on trams. Street advertising is not protected by law and cannot be recommended to foreign concerns. The circulation of newspapers is not great. French newspapers have an approximate issue of 6,000 to 8,000, Greek 4,000 to 12,000, Armenian 4,000 to 8,000, and Turkish 10,000 to 15,000.

Arithmetical Problem. A country lad went to a neighboring town and applied for a situation advertised in the local paper. One of the questions was: "A man buys an article for $4.00 and sells it for $9.04; does he gain or lose on the transaction?" After pondering the question, the rural youth answered: "He gains on the dollars, but loses on the cents."

Primitive East Indian Dancing. In native Hindu dances virtually every muscle of the body is in some way brought into play. There is a good deal of pantomime used, rather cryptic to the foreigner, and few of the professional dancers appear to have had the training necessary to give real rhythm of motion.

Advertisers in the Daily Dispatch

Now get the same cut service as the big city dailies.

We have made arrangements with the Murray Illustrated Advertising Company of New York, for the furnishing of cuts for advertising purposes absolutely free to our patrons. This service is the best in America and has as clients some of the largest newspapers published.

Never before has it been possible for a paper to furnish this service without a considerable added outlay on the part of the advertiser, and even now it is only offered to the paper recognized by advertisers and readers as the leader in its section.

The Dispatch buys the cuts; the advertiser pays for the space in the paper at the same rate as for other advertising. Many of our patrons have already taken advantage of this offer and others are invited to do so.

We will be glad to explain the matter more fully
